SAOG Studios' Triskele Paint sets

These paint sets embody the sacred and loving relationship between place, substance and spirit. Every aspect is unashamedly unique ... the pigments and paints are prepared in small batches and to order. Subtle variations occur from batch to batch as the minerals and materials we use will inevitably embody distinctive qualities unique to their stories and place of origin. Our ceramic palettes are also hand crafted from different clays with differing hues, including local foraged clays .

Return of Goods

We have a no returns policy unless goods arrive damaged.

The love that goes into the creation of our paints is carried through to the care and attention given to the safe packaging and posting process. In the rare event that goods arrive damaged, please inform us of the damage as soon as possible and within seven days of receipt of the paints. The cost of paints and postage will be repaid in full once we have received the damaged item.

Shipping Fees: Shipping fees include handling and packing fees as well as postage costs. Handling fees are fixed, whereas transport fees vary according to the total weight of the shipment. We cannot combine two distinct orders placed separately, and shipping fees will apply to each of them.

'Respect for materials' - safety guidance

Avoid eating and drinking in vicinity of paints.

Our 'Venus' Palettes are made from the copper-rich minerals azurite and malachite. Copper containing chrysocolla and verdigris, also feature in some of our pigments and paints.
